Ghoulish Good Times at Towers at Laguna Woods Village

Tower residents turn Halloween into festive event.

In yet another example of the fun and festivities enjoyed by residents of the Towers at Laguna Woods Village, suite owners celebrated Halloween with a great deal of excitement and a high level of participation.

Over 100 Tower residents attended this gala affair, and danced the night away while entertained by Robert K. Fields and the lovely singer, Suzanne. When not on the dance floor, suite owners were treated to chocolate bat cookies, pumpkin cookies, and miniature cupcakes.

As befitting this haunting event, many residents attended in a variety of costumes, some of whom were rewarded with prizes. First prize went to Betty Bent, who dressed as a "bag lady" and took home a fall tabletop bouquet as her prize. Gloria Glasser won second prize and received a bouquet of violets.

Additional winners recognized were Herb Harris as a physician, Dick Wurzel as a cowboy, and David Diehl as a jailhouse Santa, all of whom collected lottery scratchers as prizes. Vases were given to Norma Koskoff and Hannah Tenenbaum, while Mollie Hayes and Winnie Denning received handmade pumpkins.

Whether in costume or not, all residents in attendance professed to have a ghoulish good time, and were looking forward to the next Tower event!

The Towers at Laguna Woods Village is the premier active adult community in Orange County, California for those aged 55 plus.
