The Towers is Hosting an Open House Tour the Facilities and Mingle with Current Residents at the "Hoedown"!

July 8, 2011... On August 11 the Towers will open its doors to those who wish to learn how they can live the high life. Located in the 55+ community of Laguna Woods Village, the Towers offers its residents the ultimate in luxury and relaxation, with weekly housekeeping and nightly gourmet dinners.

The Towers is a place to live, to learn, and relax; and often, a place to party! To show guests the spirited lifestyle of the Towers and its residents, the Towers open house will feature a hoedown party for guests, including horses, costumes, western line dancing, refreshments and a live band.

Guests will be given an exclusive tour of the Towers highlighting its all-inclusive amenities, and a tour of the amenities throughout Laguna Woods Village, also included in the Towers lifestyle!

Are you ready to come home at the end of your day to a home that is tidied and dusted for you? Are you ready to relax with a resort quality dinner without the bother of preparation and clean up? Are you ready for a movie or bridge with friends without worrying about driving and parking? All of this is included in the life at the Towers. And did we mention the breathtaking views of South Orange County?

Then come join us on August 11 for the Towers Open House!
